

PURELY PERSONAL

The Movements of Many People, Newberrians and Those Who Visit Newberry

Mr. R. C. Boyleston was taken suddenly ill at Mayes drug store on Christmas day, but is improving at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. J. R. Davidson, we are pleased to say.

Mr. Humber M. Aull spent a few days last week with the home folk. He has gone to New York to take a short course in the linotype factory and will be there for some three weeks or more.

The bad weather of last week was followed on Friday with the beautiful sunshine which remained with us until Wednesday when the rains came again. Sunshine and shadow must follow one another, or at least they do.

There has been considerable sickness in the city the past few days, and it seems to be in the shape of colds or flu as they call it now, but no very serious cases.

City Treasurer Chapman says the taxes due the city have been paid pretty well, at least 90 per cent having been paid before the time was out.

The time for paying state and county tax without penalty expires on the last day of the year.

Mr. Will Kinard of Prosperity says he is going to put up a roller flour mill in that town and will be ready for the next wheat crop.

Mr. Rufus M. Werts who has been farming for Summer Bros. at Gary for several years and who is one of the best farmers in the country has moved to his own place on the Whitmore road. Mr. W. C. Waidrop of the Trinity section takes Mr. Werts' place.

Mr. S. B. McCarley who has been with Mr. J. A. Baxton for several years on his farm near Little River and who is a fine farmer has moved to Summer Bros. place near town.

Mr. M. J. Miller, secretary of the state sinking fund commission, was in Newberry on Wednesday to adjust a fire loss with the county superintendent of education. Some three weeks ago the negro school house in the S. Lukes district was burned. Mr. Miller makes it a rule to visit in person the scene of the fire and he and the county superintendent of education drove down about noon Wednesday. There is no doubt that it was a total and the insurance will be paid promptly.

The roads and even the highways are in pretty bad conditions since the rains have set in.

Next Monday is the first of the new year and also salesday. There are several tracts of land advertised for sale.

Mr. Joan B. Mayes is not only the mar. with a store of a thousand things but he is the man who grows fine chickens and has a fine garden with a thousand things good to eat in his garden at all seasons of the year, such as tomatoes and celery and cabbage and what not.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Coats of Richmond, Va., are visiting his mother and sister at Helena. The State in noting the visit of Mr. Coats says he learned the printer's trade on the State newspaper. That is not entirely correct. He began the trade, if we mistake not, in the office of the Voice of the People, a paper printed at Newberry and edited by Mr. F. V. Capers now in the government printing office in Washington. Mr. Coats probably learned the linotype in the State office. At any rate he is a good all round printer and we are pleased to know that he is making good in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Harman of Savannah spent a few days the past week in Newberry visiting her mother, Mrs. G. W. Pearson. Mrs. Harman is a Beotype operator who learned the trade in The Herald and News office some years ago, and a good one she is. She says she can't quit work and is still running a machine in Savannah.

Maj. J. F. J. Caldwell of Newberry is spending the Christmas holidays in Columbia and is staying at the Jefferson hotel.—The State.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church will observe their Week of Prayer the second week in January, beginning Monday, Jan. 8th, instead of the first week as first stated.

Mr. J. S. Pinkushon the tobacco man who died in Charleston the other day will be remembered in Newberry of the office people. He married Miss Mayes at the time a cousin of N. J. Langford, daughter of Mr. M. H. Langford, the family now residing in Newberry. Thursday afternoon the funeral was held at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. J. R. Davidson, we are pleased to say.

Miss Vera Derrick and Messrs. Caldwell and Eugene Derrick motored to White Rock and Columbia the first of the week for a short visit to relatives.

Among the students at home from Greenville Woman's college are Misses Elizabeth and Margaret Kinard, Edith Wilson, Mildred Perry, Lucia Sanders, Marie Schumpert and Hazel Jones.

Miss Caroline Weeks, a student at Converse, is at home for the holidays.

Miss Collie Blaise of Anderson college, accompanied by a class mate, is spending the Christmas vacation at home.

Miss Mattie Lou Stone of Rock Hill is visiting her mother, Mrs. Levi Stone.

Rev. W. W. McMorris who has been on a visit to relatives and friends in Newberry, will leave in a few days for his home in West Virginia.

Miss Mary Forehand, who has been employed by the American Sales company for the past few months, has returned to her home in Bartow, Ga.

Young Robert Langford, son of Mrs. Stannore Langford, met with a very painful and near tragic accident Christmas day when a glass bottle, in which had been placed a high of fire cracker, burst, a piece of the glass flying into his eye and cutting the ball. He received prompt attention but it is feared he will lose the sight of the injured eye.

Bergdoll trying to enter country in disguise

San Francisco, Dec. 28.—Federal agents at all the principal ports of the Pacific coast were warned Monday that Graver Cleveland Bergdoll, millionaire draft dodger, might be trying to sneak into the country by the garb of a sailor, but apparently Bergdoll did not pick Christmas day to arrive.

Bergdoll, very much wanted by the government and the American Legion, left Germany some time ago on a German ship headed for one of the Pacific ports, according to a "tip" relayed to this country.

However, they had not learned whether Bergdoll was supposed to be headed for San Francisco, Portland, San Diego, or possibly some other port.

Bergdoll escaped from a military guard in Philadelphia, his home, in May, 1920. He fled to Germany, where he remained in preference to serving his five-year sentence in this country for desertion.

Octavius R. Cohen is named special judge

Columbia, S. C., Dec. 27.—Octavius Roy Cohen of the Monk's Corner and Charleston bars, has been appointed a special judge by Governor Harvey to hold court of general sessions in Orangeburg county, beginning the second Monday in January. The late Frank B. Gary was scheduled to preside at that term.

Special Notice

In anticipation of unnecessary sickness in the early hours of the New Year's day, such as: Shooting, beating drums, etc., the public is urgently requested to refrain from such because of the great number of cases of sickness in the city limits.

S. C. McCARLEY, Chief of Police.

A BIT OF VERSE

Tomorrow The Christmas that brings sorrow Has a smiling joy tomorrow. Where the Great White Heron stands higher Than the human heart's desire Over all and everything: And we hear the Angel choir Sing the story of the King. Remembered Boies, December, 1922.

Hait-White

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 28.—A marriage of interest to their many friends and relatives in South Carolina, their former home, was that of Miss Lura Bell Hill and Mr. Geo. T. White of Atlanta, December 23, at high noon, at the home of the officiating minister, Dr. Beth, pastor of Trinity M. E. church.

Two men arrested confess their guilt

New York, Dec. 27.—Two men arrested in a recent roundup of burglars confessed today a confession to the police that they had been employed by a laundry workers' association at 875 a 136 to do work which said the wearing apparel in the workshops of laundry owners who refused to recognize them. Immediately after the men who gave their names as Frank Marner and Louis Waininger had confessed police raided the headquarters of a laundry men's association in Park Row, seized its records and arrested two officials.

Money to lend

On improved farm land at 6 per cent we can negotiate loans on property in the town of Newberry. See us at office and file your application. Lumbard & Workman, Atty's.
